

Dress Codes

Country Club Casual Dress Code (resort-style attire)

Collared sport shirts, dress shirts, blouses, casual dresses, sweaters, jackets, dress slacks, walking/golf shorts, blue jeans/denim attire. Swimwear is not allowed in the clubhouse.

Country Club Upscale Dress Code (semi-formal attire)

Jackets are suggested for men but not required, dress shirts, blouses, dresses, sweaters, jackets, dress slacks; no denim.

Golf Course Dress Code

Golf shirts, sweaters, and jackets of various styles (shirts should be tucked in when applicable), golf shorts, skirts, or slacks, hats and visors (baseball-style hats must be worn with the brim facing forward), soft-spiked golf shoes, golf sandals, or tennis shoes. Blue jeans/denim attire and swimwear are not allowed on the golf course.

Swimming Pool Dress Code

Swimwear is expected to be in good taste; thong swimwear is not permitted. Appropriate cover-ups and footwear are required outside of the immediate pool area.

Tennis Court Dress Code

Tennis shirts, sweaters, and jackets of various styles, tennis shorts, skirts, or slacks, hats and visors (baseball-style hats must be worn with the brim facing forward), appropriate shoes for hard/clay tennis courts; flip flops, sandals, and street shoes are not allowed.

Blue jeans/denim attire and swimwear are not allowed on the tennis courts.

Children aged 12 and older are expected to wear attire similar to that of adults.

Sweats, sleepwear, overly worn, dirty or items in disrepair, clothing with offensive messaging, and inappropriately revealing attire are not permitted in any of the Club facilities.